COVID-19 VIRUS - On Monday, Mar. 9th the session discussed our church’s response to the COVID 19 virus. In addition, on Wednesday, the clerk of Presbytery participated in a conference call with provincial leaders, including the Premier, the Minister of Health and Dr. Bonnie Henry, the Provincial Health Officer. Although at this time, the risk is Canada is considered low, we wish to be proactive in preventing the spread of this virus.

Worship - At this time, worship services will continue. During the outbreak, let’s greet each other with warm smiles and welcoming words. If you feel sick, stay home. (our sermons are posted each week on our website: this is a good chance to check it out at https://hanepreschurch.org/sermons/.)

Our Building - We will continue to be vigilant in thoroughly washing the dishes in the dishwasher and cleaning surfaces that are touched frequently.

Should there be any reason to change our pattern of worship or cancel services, your elder will contact you. If you have any concerns, please speak to Paddy or your elder.

BLESSED ARE THE PEACEMAKERS

Shaun MacDonald was inspired to be an instrument of God’s peace by the prayer of St. Francis. He decided to put that into action by serving as an Ecumenical Accompanier in Hebron, Palestine. From October 2019 to January 2020, Shaun provided a protective presence, monitored human rights violations, and supported local peace and human rights groups as he witnessed life under occupation. Most importantly, he visited Palestinian families and shop keepers to learn their stories so he could share them with Canadians upon his return. The World Council of Churches created the Ecumenical Accompaniment Program in Palestine and Israel in 2002. Since then, over 1,800 accompaniers from 22 countries have participated. Gifts to Presbyterians Sharing support this important ministry.

Responsive Psalm 95

1 Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord;

let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.

2 Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song.

3 For the Lord is the great God,

the great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the depths of the earth,

and the mountain peaks belong to him.

5 The sea is his, for he made it,

and his hands formed the dry land.

6 Come, let us bow down in worship,

let us kneel before the Lord our Maker;

7 for he is our God

and we are the people of his pasture,

the flock under his care.

Today, if only you would hear his voice,

8 "Do not harden your hearts as you did at Meribah,

as you did that day at Massah in the wilderness,

9 where your ancestors tested me;

they tried me, though they had seen what I did.

10 For forty years I was angry with that generation;

*I said, 'They are a people whose hearts go astray,
and they have not known my ways.'*

11 So I declared on oath in my anger,

'They shall never enter my rest.'
